Lumber Firm Makes Gift To School Instead Of Patrons

Welsch Lumber Co. of Mokena, is departing from the custom of past years and instead of giving Christmas remembrances to patrons has decided to give the money to Trinity school for retarded children.

As a result the firm presented a $300 check to Dr. Joseph E. Fields, of Joliet, president of the parents association that operates the school. The presentation was made last week-end at the lumber firm's office by Walter Welsch the founder.

"The school is grateful for this contribution," a spokesman for the parent's group said, "exemplifying as it does the true spirit of Christmas by aiding those in need."

Trinity school is supported by parents of the youngsters who attend classes there and by public contributions. The Exchange club of Joliet sparked a movement last summer which resulted in the building of a new school at Francis and Gougar roads. It replaces the one room Gougar school which the district had given to the parents of the mentally retarded youngsters who get special instruction.

But the maintenance of the school and the salaries for the teachers are constant charges and are too much for the parents to bear alone, it has been pointed out many times.

The parents conduct suppers and card parties from time to time to augment their contributions but the public donations are for the most part voluntary. Various organizations in the area give funds for the school.

The action of the Welsch Lumber Co. is an example. No one solicited the firm in behalf of the school. Officials just decided that a gift would be in keeping with the season.

13 New Members Join New Lenox Lions Club

The New Lenox Lions held a combination kick off and membership dinner Dec. 10, at the Trinity Lutheran church. Lion Roy Pfister has been named general chairman of the Cadillac award. He announces that tickets will go on sale this month, the proceeds to go again this year for community improvements. Past projects have been the purchase of two inhalators, which have already proven of value to the village. Last year the proceeds were used to purchase land for a village park which the Lions hope to have in operation by next summer.

Deputy District Governor Geo. Campe, swore in the following 13 new members: D. H. Anderson, Carl Batson, Earl Dieken, Harold Doering, Michael Fiel, Ronald Goldstern, Howard Hutchins, Kevin McGivern, John Mann, Dan Martin, John Kruger, William Schwab and John Skiniotes.

During national membership month in October, a total of 21 new members enrolled in the Lions club 13 of whom were sponsored by Lion Frank Goetschel. For this achievement, he was awarded a watch and a Lions paper weight.

Also awarded prizes for bringing in new members, were Lion Oster, a key chain for three new members, Lions Bruns, Crouse, Berlin, Skin Jotes and Whitaker, each with one new member, were awarded membership medals.

Lion Goetschel reminded all members that the membership drive is still on. Anyone desiring information on how to become a member, should call him at New Lenox 8593.

Also on tap for the evening's entertainment, was an official of Northern Illinois Gas company, who gave a very interesting talk on the supply and storage of natural gas needed for the Northern Illinois area. He climaxed his discussion with a pertinent movie.

Santa Claus Visits Orland Tuesday

Santa Claus will arrive in Orland Park at 7 p.m. Tuesday, Dec. 22. He will arrive at the Orland Shopping center by fire truck to distribute gifts for all small boys and girls.

Santa's visit is made possible thru the efforts of the Orland State bank.

Civil Defense, Clothes Top Homemakers Topics

The homemaking department at Lincoln-Way Community high school sponsored a student Civil Defense education program which ended in an all school assembly last Thursday.

The department co-operated with the National Civil Defense commission in distributing all available printed material on the subject.

There was much discussion about ladies dress for certain occasions and so the department put on a demonstration for an all-girl assembly.

Jina Mullen, Jackie Zitter, Louise Berg were the three models. They modeled the three kinds of dresses for the high school social activities.

This fit in with a part of the curriculum of the homemaking department. Grooming is a part of the teaching program. Mrs. Rosalyn Wright, head of the department, commented "Homemaking isn't all cooking and sewing." However, cooking and sewing do form a large part of the courses. As a part of this program the homemaking department gave the annual Christmas Tea on Sunday, December 13, following the fine concert given by the band, chorus, and dramatic clubs.

Along with the cooking--recipes, etc.--a complete study in nutrition is offered to the prospective housewives at Lincoln-Way. The students use white mice, much like the science department to develop the course.

Vote Bonds For Addition To New Lenox School

An addition to Oakview school at New Lenox was assured Saturday when the voters in the New Lenox school district approved a $225,000 bond issue.

The vote was:
For 300
Against 61

On the question of whether an addition should be built the affirmative vote was 302. The number opposed was also 61 so apparently two of those in favor of more classroom space changed their minds by the time they opened the second ballot and instead of voting "No", just didn't vote.

This will be the third addition to Oakview school and it is so designed that more rooms can be added in the future when the need arises.

Plans for the new addition call for five classrooms and toilet facilities to be built above the last addition. This is at the south end of the building. A multi purpose room also is to be built at the rear of the building and on the south end. This will serve as a gymnasium and an auditorium as a stage is to be included.

Classrooms have been over crowded and the school board wanted to take steps to meet the situation before the state department of public instruction took action to reduce the amount of money the district could expect from state aid. The district is not in a position, the board explained, to have any of its operating funds reduced.

The population of New Lenox is growing rapidly, surveys show, and if an addition for the school had been turned down by the voters the district would have had to operate the school on a double shift basis or increase the load on each teacher. There again, it was pointed out, the district might encounter difficulty with the state.

The architects, Kruegel, Wilkins Healy and Moore estimate the addition can be built for $11 a square foot, a low figure for building a school in a high cost area.

Oak View school was built nine years ago.

PLAN CHRISTMAS PLAYS

Orland Pupils To Turn Back The Calendar

The annual Christmas program at the Orland Park grade school will be given in two sections, and the public is invited to both. The first is scheduled for 8 o'clock tomorrow night and the second will be held next Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 23.

In the program tomorrow evening there will be a play and several musical selections by pupils of the upper grades, fourth thru eighth.

The play, a one-act affair, is based on the account of the Christmas celebration by the March family in the book, "Little Women." This classic by Louisa Mae Alcott is one of the books that is read generation after generation.

The play to be given in the Orland Park school tells the story of Christmas as it was celebrated in a New England home in the 1860's.

The scene shows March home as members of the family rehearse a play they intend to present at Christmas, and the action includes a visit by a cranky aunt and a family of German immigrants.

The cast in the Orland Park play is made up of, Susan Stienfart as Meg; Trudy Young as Jo; Pat Micheals as Beth; Pat DeVine as Amy; Pat Jaeger as Mrs. March; Martha Fish as the aunt; Sharon Clark as the maid; and Carol Benson and Patty Loebe as the children of the German family. Miss Jarth is in charge of the play.

The musical portion of the program Friday night will feature the chorus from the fourth and fifth grades; the girls' chorus and the boys' chorus from the sixth, seventh and eighth grades.

The program next Wednesday afternoon is scheduled to begin at 1:15 o'clock in the gymnasium. It will include the same play from "Little Women," with the same cast. The musical selections, however, will be furnished by pupils from grades one thru five.

Grades four and five will give a choral reading.

The unusual portion of the programs will be directed by Mrs. Ruth Ann Mowery.

The Good Shepherd Lutheran church will hold the annual Christmas program with the Sunday school participating on Wednesday Dec. 23, at 7:30 p.m.

The Ladies Aid of the Orland

Park Lutheran church held a combined Christmas-birthday party Thursday evening. Following the business session, the members exchanged gifts and entertainment followed. While seated at the table, the ladies sang Christmas carols, accompanied by Mrs. Arthur Lach at the piano. Refreshments were served.

On Sunday, Dec. 20, a program will be held in the Marley church. Carols will be sung, scripture lessons will be held, also songs; "It Came Upon the Midnight Clear", Larry Vaughn and Gary Hamer; "Away in a Manger", Verda Jo Sadd, duet, "I Heard the Bells on Christmas Day", Ricky Vaughn and James Walker; and a solo by Ricky Toucks, "Silent Night", also anthems by the adult choir.

Youngsters At Mokena Touch On Space Age

The Mokena grade schools plan two Christmas programs. One is to be given tomorrow night (Friday) at the Carpenter street school and the other next Tuesday afternoon, starting at 1 o'clock in Willowcrest school.

The Carpenter street school pupils are giving an operetta this year that combines tradition with today -- "Santa and the Space Men," under the direction of Mrs. Jeane Clark, in charge of vocal music at the school.

The story of "Santa and the Space Men" deals with the efforts of a man from Mars and representatives from other planets to capture Santa for their own spheres. Santa and the children object but after they see the Red Men from Mars, the Moon Maidens, Clowns from Uranus and others they all agree to share Santa with the universe.

All of the pupils of Carpenter school are taking part. Those with speaking parts are: Kurt Gerdel as Santa; Tommy Fee as Kob; Diane Muehler as Mary; Greg Fant as Tom; Sue Mazurek as Alice; Cindy Robinson as Rose; Timmy Hull as Billy; Barbara Hanson as Sally; Jim Gorman as Jack; Carol Chisholm as Betty; Carol Lauffer as Jenny; Donna Bruce as Anne; Bob Boysen as Art and Jim Marce as Hank.

Those speaking for the various groups are: Susan Soderburg for the Moon Maidens; Tom Collins for the Black Gnomes; Pat Bell for the Venus Maids; Dennis Cappel for the Uranus Clowns; Todd Bennett for the Jupiter Men; Joyce Harling for the Neptunian Fortune Tellers; David Howell for the Carolers and Tim Ricketts for the Red Men from Mars.

Mrs. Elizabeth Cappel, superintendent, invites the public to attend the program. She also extends an invitation to all who can see the program at Willowcrest school next Tuesday afternoon.

This will be presented in the new assembly room by pupils from grades one thru four.

He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry Niemann, and was born in Frankfort township in March, 1886. On July 29, 1910 he was married to the former Anna Kammin, of Iowa, and the couple farmed in the Frankfort area until 16 years ago when Mr. Niemann retired and they moved to Blue Island.

ceded him in death.

Removal was to the Hirsch chapel at Tinley Park and funeral services were held Monday (Dec. 14) afternoon from the Mokena Methodist church with the pastor, the Rev. Robert F. King, officiating. Burial was in St. John's cemetery.

Orland Park Will Operate Sewage Plant

A contract between the village of Orland Park and the Metropolitan Sanitary District of Chicago under which the village will operate the sewage treatment plant there was signed at the regular board meeting.

The village will pay the costs of operating the plant, according to the agreement, but will be reimbursed by the sanitary district so in reality the municipality will not be out of pocket.

Indications were that two men would be employed in the actual operation of the plant.

The village council gave approval to the recommendation of the zoning board to classify five acres along U.S. 45, just south of the Night of Rest Motel, as Class C to permit the Martin Implement Co. to build a display room and warehouse there. The firm is now in business at 143rd and U.S. 45. The land was purchased from Mrs. Margaret Sullivan.

The display room will be of concrete block with a stone front, according to plans.

The board also appointed a police commissioner who will have charge of the department. The new commissioner is Eldon Nicolai, a native of Orland Park who has always made his home there. Mr. Nicolai was in charge of military police when he served in Korea and so is familiar with the operation of police force.

Board Acts To Safeguard Pupils At Frankfort

Frankfort Schoolboard member, Walter Marks revealed Tuesday, that the Frankfort Consolidated School District 157 - C has purchased an automatic sprinkler system for the Frankfort grade school. Installation of the $8,400 system will begin right after the first of the year.

Tinley Park Police Chief Warns Against Blasting Caps

Chief of Police Harold Moore issued a warning today against blasting caps which every year blind or maim many youngsters in the United States.

These caps which are used to detonate charges of dynamite may appear to a boy or girl to be harmless, but "in the hands of an inexperienced person they are extremely dangerous," the chief said.

In a statement directed to both adults and boys and girls, Chief Moore warned, "anyone finding a cap should not touch it, but should immediately report it to the police or some other law enforcement officer." These officers know how to dispose of them without harm to anyone.

Some boys and girls do not know a cap when they see one. Others know the caps will explode but are unaware of the grave danger involved. The detonation of a blasting cap sends pieces of metal flying out in all directions with the speed of a rifle bullet. These metal fragments can injure or blind a person even at a distance of 200 feet or more.

Blasting caps are copper or aluminum cylinders about as big around as a lead pencil and from 1 to 6 inches long. There are two kinds of caps. The "ordinary cap" is exploded by a burning fuse inserted in the open end. The other kind is an electric blasting cap. It has wires coming out one end. When electric current is applied to the wires the cap explodes. Blasting caps are used in mining, quarrying and construction work, land clearing, oil prospecting, pipe line laying, and many other necessary jobs in industry and agriculture.

Skilled blasters who work with caps handle them with as much care as they use with dynamite. Some boys and girls, however, think of them as fascinating toys.

Blasting caps sometimes are lost or stolen. Youngsters find them and think it would be fun to hit one with a stone or pick at it with a nail or knife. This is almost sure to explode the sensitive charge in the cap.

Chief Moore says the only safe advice for a boy or girl is "Don't touch blasting caps."

WILLIAM F. WHITESIDE
Cook Co. Associate Farm Adviser

The soybean variety trial on the Henry Andresen farm in Orland Township, was harvested in early December. There was very little lodging, the beans were standing well at harvest. The yields of the beans are as follows:

Variety	Yield Bu. Per Acre
Harosoy	36.79
Adams	35.61
Chippewa	34.58
Lindarin	34.51
H-H	33.92
Hawkeye	33.55
Shelby	30.90
Lincoln	30.17

While we are talking about beans, research at the University of Illinois indicates that farmers can increase soybean yields by growing them in narrow rows, from 22 to 28 inches. Results from 352 plots in Illinois covering most of the varieties mentioned above, show a yield advantage of 15% for 24 rows over 40 inch rows. Research also indicates that the best seeding rate is about 75 pounds per acre when the beans are planted in narrower rows.

Many farmers who grew oats last year will recall the difficulty experienced with a disease called "Yellow Dwarf". This disease caused drastic reduction in yields. Of the popular varieties today, none are completely resistant to this disease; however, the variety Newton performed better than any of the recommended varieties. Minhafer and Nemaha showed slightly less damage than most of the other varieties, and Clinton 60 were hard hit.

The best known method to combat the Yellow Dwarf disease, is early planting and proper soil fertilization and management. The reasoning behind this is that vigorously growing plants are better able to tolerate the disease than smaller plants. Also, the heavy population of aphids usually does not appear in Illinois oat fields until some time in May. The disease is spread by these aphids, thus you can see that early plant-

Present Vesper Concert At Lincoln Way High School

BY MARGARET SEMMLER
Mokena 5561

I want to say a few words about the Christmas Vesper concert presented Sunday afternoon in Lincoln-Way High school by its bands, choirs and drama clubs.

Each group gave an outstanding presentation; the band played their opening selections of four numbers in a professional manner. Each presentation showed they had a director who understood and loved music, as well as did each member -- the director is Robert C. Taylor.

The girls glee club were picturesque in their robes of red with white stole collars. As they sang, it was easy to see that each loved their part and that the director, Tom D. Olson, also loved music and was a capable instructor.

The Christmas story was beautifully presented by the band and mixed chorus, as arranged by Paul Yoder. Melvin W. Donaho, was the narrator who read the story in the Gospel according to St. Luke and St. Matthew. The drama club made it more real as they presented the story in tableau, during the narration and singing.

Climaxing the program was the ever loved and beautiful "Hallelujah" chorus from Handel's "Messiah" which always thrills the audience.

I am sure all who were present were proud that we had such a fine school, our own, in our own territory, and I do not believe any one present regretted one cent that has and will be paid in making this possible.

I am also sure everyone present were proud of each director, the superintendent and each student. May the good work continue.

The new addition being made to the Willowcrest public school will be completed soon after Jan. 1, at which time the 5th grade from the Carpenter st. school will be transferred to the new school.

Mrs. Henry Shevlin spent Friday night with her sister-in-law, Miss Florence Shevlin in Chicago. The next morning they enjoyed shopping together, after which Mrs. Shevlin returned home.

Miss Katherine Cooper and brother Jim, daughter and son of Mr.

and Mrs. Everett Cooper, who are students at the University of Illinois at Urbana, will return home Saturday for the holidays.

Mrs. Margaret M. Semmler and sister, Mrs. Clida Deadmore attended the Christmas party and program last Friday evening of the Illinois Press Women, held in the parlors of the Central church in Chicago. Staying overnight in the city, they shopped the next morning for a short time and enjoyed viewing the beautiful decorated Marshall Field store and its huge tree.

Bremen - Sandburg In SWS Race

Maybe we are right for a change. Thus far, it looks like the SWS race is a two team battle between Bremen and Carl Sandburg.

The Eagles had an easy time of it--dropping Evergreen Park near Chicago last Friday evening, 69-41. Oak Lawn proved a much more stubborn foe. The Eagles rushed to an early 9-point lead and then had to fight desperately to hold on for the victory, 57-53.

"We were substituting in the first half against Evergreen Park," Adams reported. Even after the sixth straight win for the Sandburg team Adams would not committ him self as to their chances in the SWS. "We still have the tough teams to play in the SWS, and our record could be quite different after meet ing them," he finished.

It certainly is difficult to decide who could win this conference. But Bremen seemed to pick up that extra steam by giving Rich the drubbing.

Probably the Saturday game with Argo will give some inkling as to just how strong the Eagles really are. If they can beat the Argo team --currently unbeaten and probably in the SSL--look out for those Eagles could capture the first SWS championship for their school in conference history.

Evergreen was not much of a match for the sharpshooting men from the Orland bluff.

The Eagles won every quarter and the Mustangs were only able to score more than 11 points in the second quarter, then it was 13.

Eleven Sandburg players got into the scoring act. Lance Roberts, sophomore center, was the high scorer with 11 points. Almost everyone of the 11 players had six or more points.

Saturday evening was a different story at Oak Lawn.

The Spartans were smarting from their 8 point loss to Lincoln-Way and the Knights were down in shooting, etc.

Oak Lawn caught up with Sandburg in the second quarter and did not let up. The Eagles were going very well to escape with a hard fought four point victory.

Ron Lindgren, usual substitute proved the hero for the Eagles. Don Arnold and Gerry McBride were not hitting and so Ron took up the slack. He pumped in 17 points, with 7 field goals and 3 fouls.

This was the highest score for Lindgren in a Sandburg game so far. He was hitting very well on a corner set, and collected numerous baskets after grabbing the rebound under his own basket.

Lindgren was Adams boy in that Oak Lawn game.

McBride and Arnold each got 5 baskets, which is plenty good.

Adams switched Duane Erickson to guard with McBride and Duane countered with three or four long 30 footers for an 8 point total in the game.

The biggest scorer in the ball game came from Oak Lawn's Miller who netted a total of 24 points on 8 field goals and 8 charity tosses. Miller's was getting a 15 foot jump shot and hitting it with deadly accuracy.

The final quarter proved to be a defensive battle with the teams scoring a total of only 15 points. Sandburg came out on top 8-7. An Eagle stall in the final moments proved very effective to protect their four point lead.

It was the third straight defeat for Oak Lawn in Conference play.

Obscure fears and worries plaguing a youngster are often the explanation for nail biting, ear pulling, and general "Junior-sized jitters", the topic under consideration when the Child Study Discussion was held on the evening of Thursday, Dec. 10, at Tinley Park Central school. The subject matter was taken from a magazine article by Jane W. Kessler, which pointed out that a child is often unaware of his hidden anxieties and unable to identify them; and, even the mildest form of criticism of the visible manifestations may etch the mannerisms deeply into his behavior pattern.

Approaching the matter calmly and sympathetically in privacy and, determining the cause, were suggested initial steps in dealing with the problem.

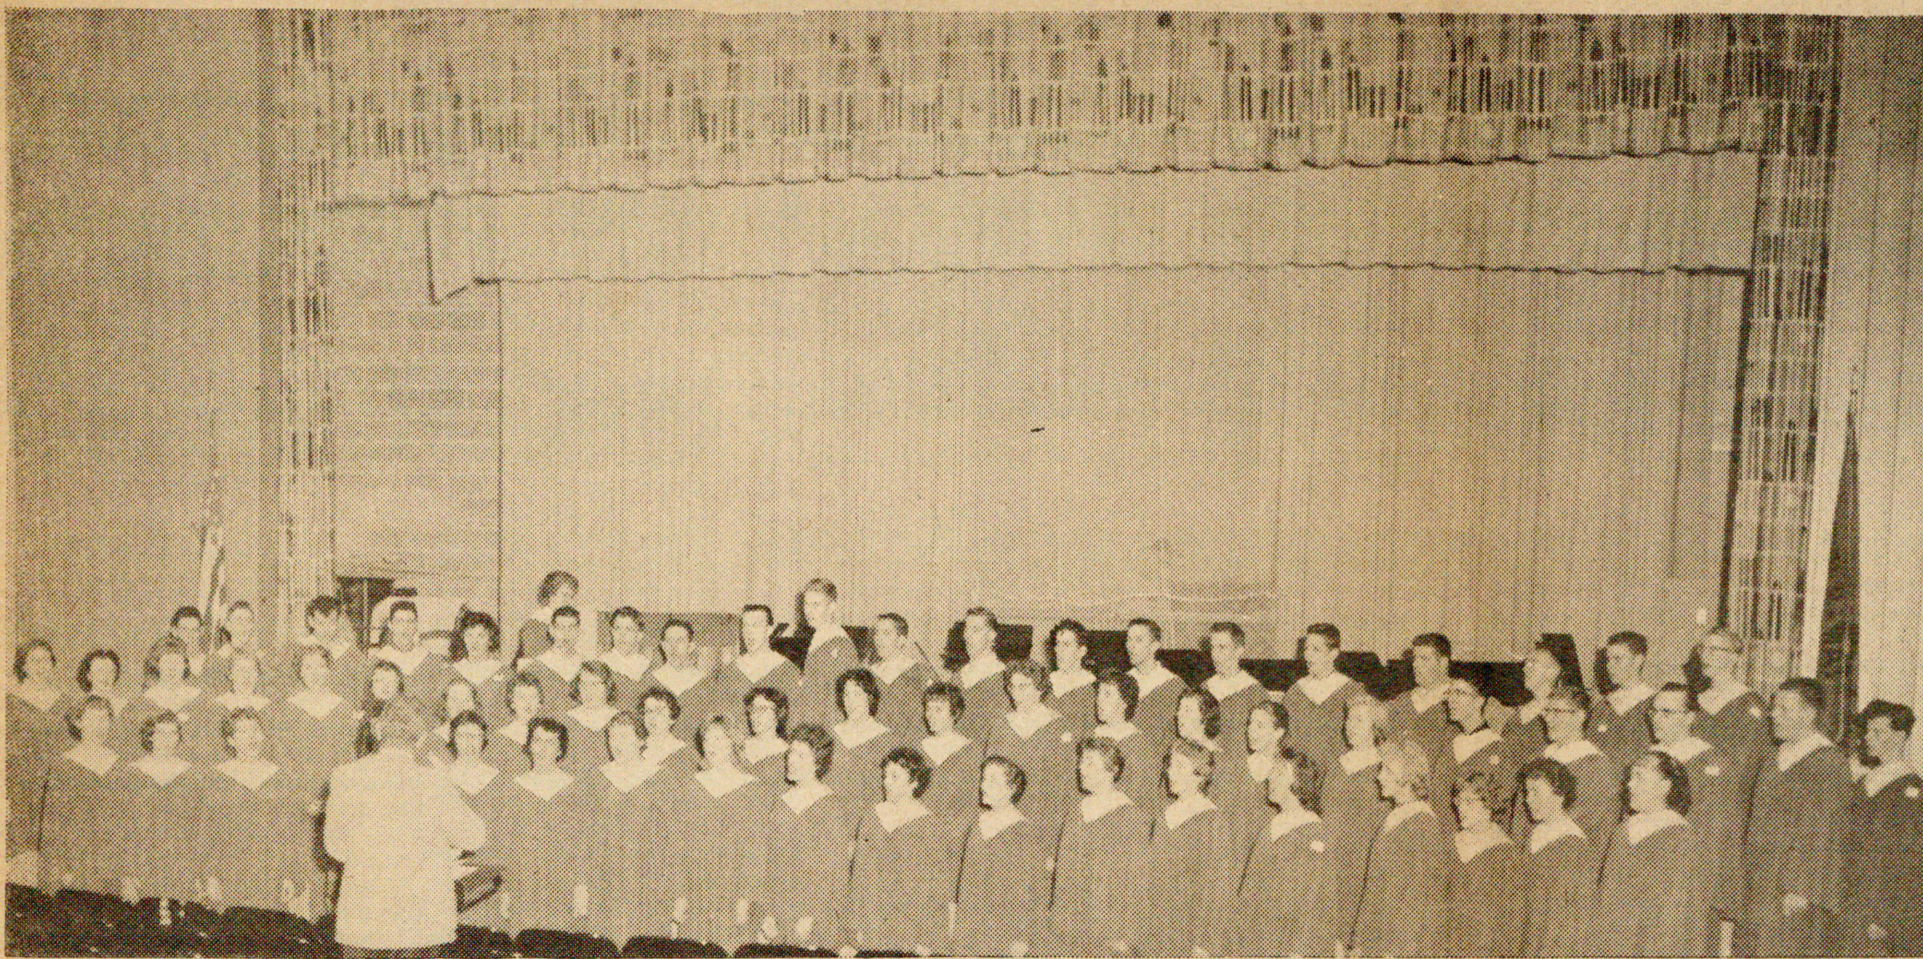

Typical behavior patterns in youngsters from six to nine years old were illustrated by a film strip.

Under the direction of Mrs. Harold A. Peterson, parent education chairman, the Child Study Discussion is a monthly seminar sponsored by the Tinley Park Parent-Teacher Association, and is open to all adults.

NIG Gets OK On Plans For Gas Storage

Northern Illinois Gas Company Friday (Dec. 11) received Illinois Commerce Commission approval of its plans for operation of its underground storage reservoir near Troy Grove (between LaSalle and Mendota) in the 1960-61 heating season. Permission also was granted for the further development of this facility.

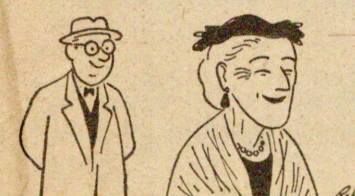

According to the ICC order, NIGas now may test a larger area of the porous sandstone some 1,500 feet below the surface near Troy Grove.

The utility has been injecting natural gas into the structure at Troy Grove since July, 1958. The total volume of gas pumped into the proposed reservoir passed the four billion cubic foot mark on Nov. 22.

All operations to date indicate that the sandstone in which the gas is stored is completely sealed off from the surface by a thick layer of cap-rock, according to Loren W. Tuttle, NIGas vice president.

Use of the Troy Grove storage facility will supplement pipeline supply during cold weather. It is expected to supply enough natural gas to heat between 50,000

4-H's Prepare To Get 1960 Program Underway

Will County 4-H'ers in 1960 will have an opportunity to practice the proverb "The scale is mightier than the eye." During Christmas vacation 4-H'ers will be taking their steer calves to local elevators to have them weighed. The weighing of steers at the local elevators will be the initial action in the 1960 Will County 4-H Junior Feeders project.

Between the first weighing and 1960 4-H Show, each 4-H'er enrolled in the project will keep accurate records. The records will involve the amounts and kinds of feed fed during the year to each animal.

At the 4-H Show, animals enrolled in the new project will be weighed directly off the truck. The junior feeder entries will then be judged on type. The judge will also take into consideration the average daily gain and cost of gain of each animal. The animals will be placed on their total score of these points.

The program is designed to give 4-H'ers some practical experience in cattle feeding. Another goal is to take emphasis from judging cattle only by sight. Performance is a big factor being considered in this new 4-H Program.

However, the regular baby beef classes will be shown at the 1960 4-H Show. Animals in the baby-beef classes cannot be shown in the Junior Feeders class.

The development and planning of this project was completed at a 4-H Leader's meeting held in Joliet. 4-H'ers planning to enroll in baby-beef in 1960 are encouraged to take the Junior Feeders Project.

The New Lenox and Mokena Grain companies are cooperating.

The visiting sisters are from Spain and they found the snow quite fascinating, altho the Most Rev. Mother Mercedes appears to prefer that her colleague keep the snowballs she is proffering. Sandburg, Braves Look Like Victors

Bremen and Carl Sandburg should remain even in the battle for the SES basketball crown on Friday evening. However, neither team is going to find the opposition a patsy.

Reavis, Sandburg's foe, has proved to be plenty tough, in spite of the fact that they are the smallest club in the circuit.

The Rams dropped a close struggle to Bremen and then defeated a fine Lincoln-Way team by five points.

Since the game is at Orland Park the Eagles should rate a sure victory. But watch out for those small men from Chicago. They ran circles around the Redmen of Midlothian.

Bremen who take on Homewood-Flossmoor may suffer a let down after the great finish that they turned in against the Rich Rockets. Yes, Rich beat Homewood-Flossmoor, but the Vikings are plenty big. They are the biggest team in the SWS.

The Braves will find it more difficult to rebound. This will be a big test for Jim Mifflin and John Ragsdale. The Bremen team will be away for this big one.

One of Bremen's starters of last season is playing with H-F. Bremen should win this game by a few points.

Joe Kruzich and his Knights are in for some real problems on Friday at home. The Rocket's are starting from the first real drubbing they have received in conference play.

However, it appears that Skip Kruzich will be almost healthy for this game. If he is, look for a couple of point decision that could go either way.

If the Knights win they will be in a tie with two other teams for third place -- that is if Bremen wins. That would be high altitude for any Lincoln-Way team, but believe me it is very possible. The Knight's can scuttle Rocket's.

DEATH OF ADELLA PADDOCK

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon, Dec. 8, at the Lockport Congregational church, for Mrs. Adella M. Paddock, aged 85, wife of the late Dr. Walter Paddock, for many years a Lockport physician.

Mrs. Paddock died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H.M. Henke, Dec. 4, in Whittier, Calif. The body was brought to Lockport by plane and removed to the Goodale Funeral Home. Rev. H.M. Finley and Rev. George Moulthrop were the officiating clergymen. Burial was in Barnett cemetery, Homer twp.

Born in Homer, May 13, 1874, on the farm now owned by Otto Konow, Sr., she was the daughter of the late Mary and Amos Savage, Homer pioneers. She was a graduate of an early class at Lockport High school; also studied music and taught piano for a long time.

Following her marriage she and the doctor lived in Orland Park and then moved to Lockport where they made their home until his death, several years ago. In 1954 she went to Whittier where she has since lived with the Henke family.

Mrs. Paddock was ever interested and active in community affairs, and was a member of the Sarah D. Moon chapter, Order of Eastern Star; the Wayside Workers circle of King's Daughters, and of the Lockport Congregational Church. As a young woman she joined the Homer church and was a charter member of the Homer Missionary Society, as well as church organist.

Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. Charles Geaunmally (Gladys) of Pinckneyville, Mrs. Henke (Jes-sie) and Mrs. R.K. Smith (Lois) of Silver Springs, Md., five grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. She also leaves many nieces and nephews and a host of friends.

The Couples' club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Hollister Friday evening.

Plans are in progress for the children's program to be held at Homer church Sunday evening, Dec. 20.

(CNS) -- December 19 is the deadline for filing of appeals on the new real estate assessments announced for all property in the townships of Maine, Leyden, Orland, and Calumet.

The assessor's office has turned over the 1959 quadrennial reassessment volumes for these suburban townships to the board of tax appeals. A 10 day period for filing of complaints with the board opened Dec. 10.

The board accepts complaints from those who feel their new assessments are too high and hearings are held later.

It's up to the property owner to prove his complaint has merit before any reduction is allowed in the assessment.

The board offices are on the third floor on the County Building. Bring your 1958 tax bill along.

Knights Wallop Oak Lawn But Lose To Reavis

BY BILL SLUIS

In two games last weekend, the Lincoln-Way Knights won one on Friday over the Oak Lawn Spartans, 59-50, then turned around on Saturday and rapped the other to the Reavis Rams, 61-55.

On Friday night the Knights, under the leadership of sophomore forward Ron Yunker, overcame numerous obstacles in beating Oak Lawn 59-50. Altho the Spartans led at the half 34-32, the Knights had a great fourth quarter and left the visitors in the wake of a nine-point margin. Paul McHenry scored 22 points for the losers, to make him high man on the scoring totem.

The Spartans struck early, getting a 7-2 lead before the Knights managed to come back into the game. They did, however, manage a 14-14 tie at the quarter. The second quarter was more of the same thing, as Oak Lawn managed to grab a slim 28-26 lead at the half-way turn. But in the second half, the Knights quickly tied it and went into a 38-37 lead at the 3/4 mark.

The Knights showed an excellent fourth quarter, hitting well from the field and from the charity stripe. Again and again they hit, owning as much as a 12 point lead at various times during the period. This was too much for the Spartans, and they succumbed 59-50. This is quite outstanding when one considered the fact that the Knights did it without their high score, Skip Kruzich. It was a real team effort, as shown by the fact that four Knights scored nine or more points. They were: Ron Yunker, 15; Al Waldvogel, 13; Jerry Haehnlein, 9; and Duane Warning 9.

The game was ragged at many points. Both teams had tendency to throw the ball away on bad passing. In victory the Knights did not look nearly as good as in the one-point loss to Carl Sandburg. Yunker gave some indication of the things to come for the Lincoln-Way squad.

Waldvogel did plenty more than 12 points worth in that game. Al did an exception job on the defensive rebounding. On six successive occasions he collected six rebounds on his side of the basket. When the shot went to the left the Knights had it from Waldvogel.

Skip Kruzich was sorely missed as an influence for better ball control, but those Lincoln-Way juniors gave plenty of reason to believe that next year is the year for the Knights.

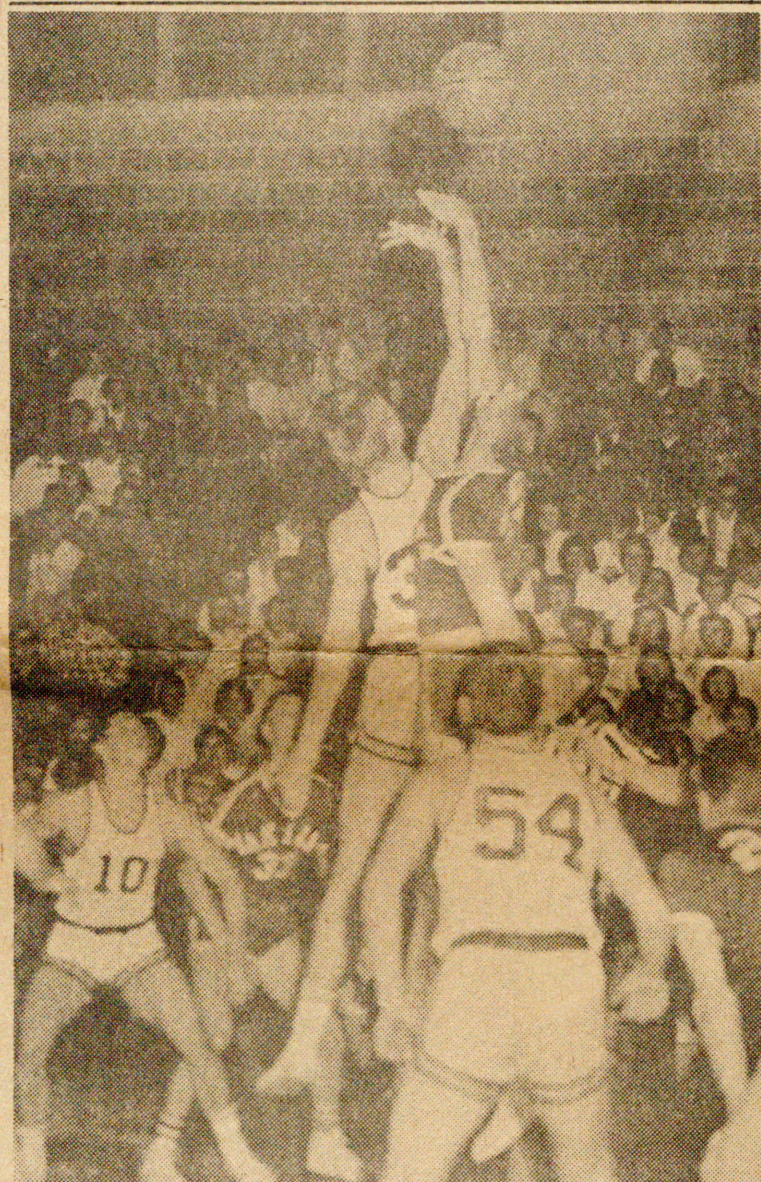

Mike Dina came in to sub for Duane Warning and scored a basket and a foul, but Mike's important contribution was an assist on the other side of the basket for Waldvogel on defense.

The exact opposite type of ball was played by the Knights on Saturday night, as they were downed 61-55 by the Reavis Rams. Perhaps it was the fact the Knights hit only 32% from the field that did the trick for Reavis, or perhaps it was the fact that the Rams made good on 25 of 29 free tosses, but the Knights were beaten, after a tremendous rally in the last quarter and a half.

Much of the trouble was due to the excellent shooting of Pete Myza and Bob LeMonier, who tallied 35 points between them, LeMonier making 11 charity throws for most of his fifteen points, while Myza hit eight field goals for the bulk of his scoring. Skip Kruzich, who normally scores 24 points a game, was not extremely sharp, probably due to his only partially recovered foot, injured in the Sandburg game. Duane Warning and Bill Seavertson did much of the Lincoln-Way scoring, scoring 25 points between them. Bill did much of his scoring in the fourth quarter, working off of a fast break, and scored 12 points total, Warning scoring 13, mostly 15 footers.

All in all the Knights played rather poorly, missing many opportunities in the first half, and making a lot of mistakes on defense. Knights 14, 12, 21 -- 59. Oak Lawn 14, 14, 9, 13--50.

Braves Also Defeat Rams To Keep League Record Clear

BY BRUCE RODGER

Those Braves reached their much talked of potential.

In fact, it was at its zenith. It wasn't a yellow Rocket, but red blitz that ripped out a convincing victory.

Vengence! That was it. Those Redmen tore the net with vengeance. They drubbed Rich -- you better believe it.

It was a shining hour for Coach Bill Brown and his Bremen Braves when arch rival, Rich of Park Forest fell before them, 92 - 65, Saturday night in Midlothian. It was only the second time that the Braves had knocked down the Rockets in the five-year history of the South west Suburban Conference. But, they knocked them down.

Victory was sweet for the Braves. They displayed great talents on the boards, which in the opinion of many was the best rebounding Bremen game the Braves have produced.

Jim Mifflin, 6-4 forward, tallied 31 points for high scorer.

At the start of the fray, Bremen, Rich and Sandburg were tied for first place. Bremen and Sandburg now have three wins and no losses as the 1959-60 basketball season gets moving.

Rich's much vaunted press, failed to stop the Red Men. Braves, Mifflin and John Ragsdale, were free under the baskets. They waltzed to the sweet net music.

John Mannioni, a guard for Bremen, displayed excellent ball handling, and added to the cause by chipping in 20 points. It was the finest hour the young Brave backcourt performer had experienced. Others are expected from him.

The first quarter was a close one with the Braves taking a 19-18 lead. It was scoring close, but Rich never seemed to bother the Braves.

Mifflin was the star of the Bremen team over the weekend, garnering a total of 58 points. Almost 30 per game. He nabbed 17 rebounds in the Rich game. Driving in or rebounding he displayed talent which should place him as an all-conference selection.

The game was close the first half with Bremen 39, Rich 36. The second half was all Bremen. They poured it on without mercy. It was that vengeance.

Ragsdale was also a factor in the win over Rich. The lanky 6'4" junior, center for the Braves, clipped in 21 points. One of the outstanding performers in the area, Ragsdale jumped as if on springs. At the end of the third quarter, it was Bremen 63, Rich 52.

Phil Wagner, highly touted Rich player, made 19 points, but was no match for the Red Men jumpers.

Friday night - there was a game! Jim Mifflin, 6-4 champion of the Bremen Braves tepee turned in a fabulous performance and was the big chief in a thrilling - strange victory.

"Miff" was good for eight free throws and two baskets in the last quarter of the game Friday to spill the Rams that close struggle, 50-56.

It was a wide open game throughout with the Rams horning ahead press, but being corraled by the Braves.

Mifflin scored eight points in the first frame with Braves Rich Norbut and Jerry Randel El hitting for two buckets apiece. At the end of the first quarter, it was Bremen 20, Reavis 8.

The second quarter was a different story. The Rams almost pressed the Braves right off the court, and Bremen was blindly losing the ball. John Mannioni, plagued with fouls, was replaced by Vern Sloan, who vainly tried to exert a cooling-down influence on his teammates. Reavis was hot in this quarter, with Mysa and Natalie doing the scoring.

Ragsdale, Norbut and Randel El were each good for four points in the second quarter.

The press was paying off for the Rams as the score board showed 33 for Bremen and 31 for Reavis at the half.

In the second half it looked like the game had moved out to the gridiron, with long passes and interceptions.

Sensational, Mifflin and Ragsdale dominated the boards, only to have the guards lose the ball.

In the third quarter, Mifflin chipped in six points. Reavis's Ken Natalie pushed in four baskets to give the Rams a lead, 42-41 at the end of the quarter.

It was do or die for Bremen. Natalie, the spark plug of the Rams was successfully stealing the ball to score. With two minutes to play, the Braves were in a sorry position, 53-52.

Mifflin came thru with a 15 foot jump shot to give the Braves the lead.

In the thrilling finish, with only 20 seconds to go, the score was tied 55-55, when Bob LeMonier of Reavis lost his head and landed a right cross punch at Norbut of the Braves. Both players were expelled from the game by referees, LeMonier being charged with a double technical and Norbut with a technical.

Mifflin made the technical shots good to make Bremen out in front 60-55. Natalie of the Rams went to the line, making one charity toss. The Braves held the ball for the last ten seconds for a 60-56 victory.

Ragsdale and Mifflin tallied a total of 36 rebounds. Mifflin garnered 27 points.

PAUL SCHULTZ, 159th & Oak Park Ave., Tinley Park, is a member of the varsity basketball team at Culver Military academy.

The team has been undefeated in its first two games this year. Last year, the team had a 9-6 season. Schuldt won a reserve letter last year.

Browsing Through The Cold Stove League

BY DEAN DALLAS

Semmler Press Sports Editor

Tony Bettenhausen has signed to drive the Lindsay-Hopkins car that Jim Rathmann drove to second place in the 1959 Indianapolis race classic.

Tathmann put on a great demonstration which the car took to finish in the second spot and make quite a dash on Roger Ward in the final stretches of the race.

Last year Tony smashed up the fast car that he had been driving in the time trials and drive the much slower Hoover Motor Special to a solid fourth place finish.

A few days ago Tony drove the Lindsay-Hopkins Special for a test run on the unprepared Indy track and had the car running over 146 per lap when he eased off.

This is tremendous speed, considering that the car had not been worked on since the last race it was driven in Trenton, New Jersey. It becomes even more amazing when you realize that Tony drove the car on a track which had sand and leaves on it. There was no rubber on the track for more traction, etc. These features help to slow down the car.

Things are looking up in the early preparation for Ton's run at the 500 crown for next year. He is the old veteran of the Indy Classic, and he is hoping with plenty of local fans that this will be his year. Some experts feel that his car can easily run with the Watson car that Roger Ward drives. Bettenhausen will hope to prove it next May at the Speedway.

Tony is farming as hard as ever in the off season. Actually, it seems that he now takes time off from his farming to do a little race driving. He certainly does a good job driving those tractors and truck.

The racing circuit is about finished for this year and it will be late spring before Tony climbs into a big car for another race.

There has been much clamor in the racing circle about the bad press that "Life" magazine gave that last 500.

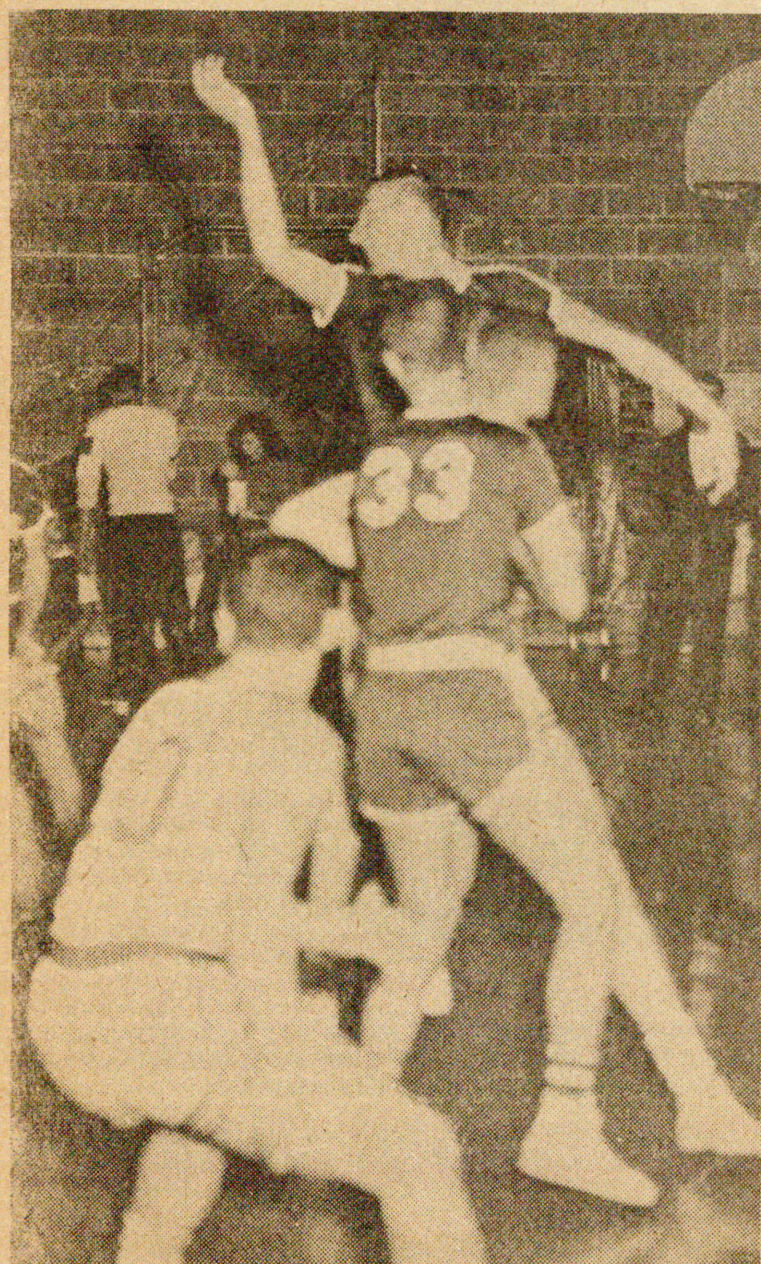

Fans and participants feel that many more are killed in our favorite sport of high school football and other such contest than are killed in auto racing.

Last year 100% deaths were caused in high school football than in the auto racing in the entire nation. Many other highly publicized activities, such as mountain climbing has taken three and four times as many as race driving.

Many safety devices have been developed on the tracks that have saved thousands on the American highways.

So the battle continues... I guess this is a part of everything called sport.

No one is really going to take the time to check facts and figures, but oh! we do love to argue about it. There is no reason to consult the authorities, etc. Why? Well, I just don't know.

JERRY HAEHNLEIN (10) seemed to forget just what game he was in. Jerry played fullback on the Lincoln-Way squad this fall. Here he seems to be following two or three Oak Lawn players and using them as interference. Where is the ball.

Churches Of Area At Work On Programs For Christmas

BY MARGOT BARTNIK
Sycamore 8-7742

New members who recently joined the United Christian church are: Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bostrom, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Morrow, and Mr. and Mrs. Van Fowers. At a child dedication service last Sunday, the following children and parents took part: Robert Steven Janke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Janke; Laurie Lynn Oliver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Oliver; Timothy Jackson Klevar, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Klevar; and Paul Lewis Schwenk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Schwenk.

Mrs. Ted Kraefft, chairman of the christian education department announced plans for the Christmas pageant which is to begin at 5:30 p.m. in the Willowview School on Dec. 20. Children are asked to bring gifts wrapped in white which will be sent to pre-school children in the orphanage at St. Louis.

The adult choir is particularly busy in preparation for their program on the evening of Dec. 22 at 8. The Carolers Choir is also working hard for their part in the program. Mrs. Wendell Pew is director of both choirs.

The Youth Fellowship progressive dinner was a very enjoyable event. Dinner began at 6:30 p.m. with appetizers at the Raddatz home; followed by salad at the Forsgrens' - the main course (spaghetti) at the Sykuta home, and dessert at Rev. Wendell Pew's, where the remainder of the evening was spent playing games. This same group of young people plan to convene at about 8:30 p.m. on the evening of the 20th, after the church's Christmas pageant, for caroling in the neighborhood. Many of the young people have a part either in the program or in one of the two church choirs to sing on that evening.

ST. JOSEPH MISSION CHURCH
With the grace of God, and a great deal of time, effort, and sacrifice by the Catholic (and some non-Catholic) people of Country Club Hills, the goal of Midnight Mass on Christmas eve in the new building for the Mission church will become a reality. This will have been accomplished just two days less than eight weeks from the day construction began; just two days more than nine weeks from the day the idea of building the church was first conceived. Hopes are still high that Christmas eve will see the mortgage, which was signed by four men belonging to the Mission church, completely paid. This will be possible provided that all pledges are fulfilled. Two masses will be said in the new church on Christmas Day; hours to be announced later. Midnight Mass on Christmas Eve will be celebrated by the Rev. Robert J. Loftus, of St. Joseph church, Homewood.

There are 16 members of the Mission choir, under the direction of Thomas Quigley. They are: Mrs. Lee Hoffman, Mrs. Lee Merriam, Mrs. Robert Arbutnot, Mrs. Vincent Rio, Mrs. Alois Lewandowski, Mrs. James Cuculick, Mrs. Pat Leszczewicz, Mrs. Larry Simon, Mrs. Don West, Mrs. James Nally, Mrs. William Coughlin, Mrs. Ed McPherson, Mrs. Edward Zazac, Mrs. Denise Nietzel, Mrs. Sharon Boyens, and Mrs. George Bartnik. Many thanks should go to the Music Mart in Homewood who is lending an organ for use by the Mission on Christmas Eve. The Choir met last Monday in the home of Mrs. Lee Merriam.

The Silver Tea, held on Sunday, Dec. 6 at the school hall at St. Joseph's in Homewood was a great success. This annual event is sponsored by the Women's Guild of St. Joseph church for the Sisters of St. Joseph school. There are seventeen Sisters presently on the teaching staff. Mrs. Keith Francis was chairman of the tea.

While Mrs. Thomas O'Shaunessy and Mrs. Lloyd Mitchell poured, several women from our community assisted in the kitchen. They are: Mrs. Charles Soukup, Mrs. Can O'Connell, Mrs. Joseph Burroughs, Mrs. Lee Hoffman, Mrs. Larry Simon, Mrs. Wm. Schomburg, and Mrs. John Larmon. Mrs. Thomas O'Shaunessy also aided the workers in the kitchen. Room mothers Mrs. Robert Hancock and Mrs. John Larmon were hostesses for this gala event. The hall was beautifully decorated, and refreshments were enjoyed amid the gay holiday atmosphere.

The Women's Guild of St. Joseph's church held their monthly meeting on Tuesday, Dec. 8 in the school hall. Entertainment was provided by the children of St. Joseph's school, who presented a selection of choral music and a program of four dances. Members donated non-perishable food items to add to the collection for the Christmas baskets for needy families in the archdiocese of Chicago. Refreshments were served by Mrs. William Schomburg and Mrs. Keith Francis, who are members of the board. Highlight of the evening was a check in the amount of $1,000 which was presented to Father Joseph Burke, pastor of St. Joseph's by the Guild, to apply toward the debt incurred for blacktopping the school playground and parking lot.

A gala New Year's eve dance is planned in St. Joseph's hall by the St. Joseph Holy Name society. Plans again call for decorations that will change the hall into a stunning background for New Year's eve celebrations. The evening will begin at 10. Tickets $10 per couple and include orchestra, dancing 'till dawn, followed by breakfast. Tickets are available from Holy Name men.

BAPTIST CHURCH

A new sign has been erected in front of the Country Club Hills Baptist Church. It is hoped the sign, which is very attractive, will be seen by passing motorists. Mrs. C.W. Reaka attended the annual meeting of all circles of the Women's Missionary union of the Homewood Baptist church, Homewood. The meeting was held at the Homewood Baptist church on Tuesday, Dec. 8.

On Wednesday, Dec. 9 Sunday school children began practicing their Christmas Program which will be presented on Dec. 23, at the Country Club Hills Baptist church.

GREAT PLAYS IN REHEARSAL
Rusty Wilson, city chairman for educational television, announces new shows on Channel 11 for December. Most exciting for adults will be a Friday series entitled "Great Plays in Rehearsal" at 8. These shows take scripts from Shakespeare to Shaw and trace them from rehearsal to performance.

Children's shows on Channel 11 will include: "Discovery at the Zoo" every Friday at 4:30; "Industry on Parade"... daily films of power and noise at 3:30 p.m. Mon., Tues., and Wed., and "Totem Club" daily at 5, showing children from our Chicago area singing, building, and showing pets.

Christmas specials this month will include: "Christmas in New England" and "The Christmas Painting."

Rusty Wilson has been named city chairman for a fund drive this coming March to collect small amounts...even 50¢ per family...to bring us on Channel 11 all the drama, inspiration, and good taste so absent on commercial television. Information on such shows will be given by calling Mrs. Wilson at SY. 8-5669.

MARCH OF DIMES

Mrs. Gus Palumbo, chairman of the area, is still seeking volunteers for the March of Dimes drive which will begin Jan. 30. Volunteer unit chairmen will be feted at a luncheon today at Olympia Fields Country Club.

PTA

Country Club Hills PTA president Roger Chavanne and legislation chairman, Mrs. Rusty Wilson report that on Dec. 11 at a special meeting of the C.C.H. Parent Teacher Association executive board, the following resolution was adopted, and sent to the state PTA for presentation at the Convention of the Illinois Congress of Parents and Teachers to be held in Peoria in April of 1960. WHEREAS every child is shaped and reared by 3 basic forces: (1) its father (2) its mother (3) its society and

WHEREAS the entire Public Education system in the United States has become so intricate and complex as to require prolonged and professional study before action on current issues and future improvements, and

WHEREAS our country faces an era of unprecedented leisure-time through the coming of automation, limited work-weeks, and social and educational advances, and

WHEREAS the public image of the PTA is one involving primarily the mother and the child, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Illinois Congress of Parents and Teachers recommend to the National Congress that it establish in 1960 not one but two (2) specific programs to acknowledge the above facts. (1) Begin in 1960 a concentrated publicity effort to include all fathers in the tremendous future aims of the PTA. (A) Such effort may include evening hours for PTA meetings and assignments of several local Committee Chairmanships to fathers. (B) A Special Committee shall be assigned to report in 1961 on the entire question of "Fathers of Our Future." (B) Their study may include such things as university surveys, labor union plans, and government bureaus' statistics on work pressures and leisure time for fathers in the coming decade.

CHRISTMAS MEETING

Singing, dancing, and refreshments will be featured at the annual C.C.H. PTA Christmas meeting to be held today Dec. 17 at 8 at Willow School. Following a short business meeting the Junior Choral Group, directed by Mrs. Pearson of the District 160 teaching staff, will sing a selection of Christmas carols. The ballet school, directed by Miss Pat White, will contribute a sketch, "Do Christmas Dreams Come True?" At the close of the entertainment, the hospitality and room mothers committees will serve refreshments.

WOMAN'S CLUB

Santa Claus, in the person of Mrs. John McGrath, distributed comic grab bag gifts and provided the finale for a hilarious evening at Mickelberry's at the Dutch Treat dinner of the club, on Thursday, Dec. 10. The dinner was attended by 38 women, who enjoyed the beautifully decorated tables laden with chicken, beef, and numerous salads. The buffet style was particularly enjoyable, says Mrs. John Thomas, Club President. After dinner, a program under the direction of Mrs. Edward Coultis, was presented. While the women in the program changed into leotards and Christmas wreaths, Mrs. Norman Olson accompanied the waiting women in Christmas carols. Opening the program was Mrs. Jerome McDonald who recited Christmas poems. Then followed a ballet performed by "Rockettes" - a satire to "Santa Claus is Comin' to Town." To complete the program, a pantomime of "I'm Gettin' Nothin' for Christmas" was performed by Mrs. John Joyn, Mrs. Edward Ryan, and Mrs. Edward Coultis. Mrs. Norman Olson accompanied on the piano, and the program was ended with more caroling, while the women awaited Santa Claus. Next meeting is scheduled for Jan. 6 at Willowview, when installation of officers will take place.

CUB SCOUTS

At the Pack meeting on Friday Dec. 11th, several awards were distributed and Mike Palumbo and Greg Koehn were graduated into Scouts. Into the Webelos went Jim and Jack Crawford, and Reggie Jones. Charles Fitzpatrick was made Denner of Den. 3. Bill Langmeyer was awarded a silver arrow and a one year pin. A wolf badge and gold arrow were given to Dwight Douglas. And to William Boyer went a silver arrow. Michael Etheridge was made Assistant Denner. A Pine Wood Derby is being planned for Jan. 29th. The boys are carving racing cars out of wood for this event.

FIRE DEPARTMENT

In response to their appeal for new members, the Fire Dept. has accepted Jack Scanlan of 18750

Loretto Lane, an industrial salesman for Shippers Supply Co., and Gordon Bloom of 19041 S. Baker Ave., an employee of Illinois Bell. Openings are still available to men who are home days or men who work shifts. Those interested may call Chief Frank Daniels, SY. 8-5607. Firemen also wish to remind everyone that a Christmas tree should be carefully checked and illuminated in the safest possible manner. Residents are also cautioned against leaving their homes with the tree lit - even for only a few minutes. It takes less than 12 seconds for a cut Christmas tree to become a blazing inferno. The position of trustee is still open; interested parties may call E.R. Raddatz at SY. 8-5597 or G.T. Huemmer, SY. 8-5738.

FIRE DEPT. AUXILIARY

On Saturday, Dec. 12 the Fire Dept. Auxiliary held its annual Christmas party for members and their husbands at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Bette. Numerous games were played and the entire evening was one of great hilarity. Those who attended are as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Daniels, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ryan, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Raddatz, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Buder, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Koehn, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Scanlan, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Carroll, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Laux, and Mr. and Mrs. George Bartnik.

MR. AND MRS. PAUL LUMBERT

Couple Exchanges Vows In Attractive Church Setting

Christmas greens and large white mums decorated the Tinley Park Methodist church for the wedding of the former Lou Anne Rockrohr and Paul E. Lumbert, on Saturday Dec. 5.

Walter Wehr, the church organist, played appropriate music while the guests assembled for the 4:30 p.m. candlelight service. The pastor, Rev. Kenneth Crandall, performed the double ring ceremony.

The soloist, Miss Lou Mason, sang "Because", "The Lord's Prayer", and "Wedding Prayer".

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Rockrohr, 17251 Uccott ave., and the groom is the son of Mrs. Clarence Nelson, 17704 Oak Park ave.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a princess style gown. The bodice and sleeves were of Alencon lace and the skirt of slipper satin. She wore a pearl-studded crown and fingertip veil. Her jewelry was a pearl necklace, a gift of the groom. The bride's bouquet was a sheaf of white poinsettias and greens.

All of the attendants were sisters of the bride. Miss Susan Rockrohr, the maid of honor, wore a ballerina length Christmas green gown of Cantoni's Italian velveteen.

Mrs. Gene Kelley, Mrs. Donald Westerhausen, and Miss Karne Westerhausen, the bridesmaids, wore gowns identical to the bride's, except in ballerina length and of Christmas red velveteen. White fur headpieces, white fur muffs, adorned with large red poinsettias and holly greens completed their costumes. All wore pearl necklaces and white slippers. All of the gowns were made by the bride's sister, Mrs. Kelley.

Harry Lumber served his brother as best man. Other groom attendants were John Devlin, Allen Rick, and Courtney Miffien.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Rockrohr wore a sheath gown of pink silver lame, set off with a pink velvet headpiece. Her accessories were black. Rhinestone and a corsage of bronze lace slipper jewelry completed the ensemble.

The groom's mother wore a champagne beige lace suit, matching accessories pearls, and a corsage of bronze lady slippers.

Following the wedding ceremony, a reception for 300 guests was held in the Oak Forest village hall. A lace tablecloth graced the bridal table, on which were bud vases containing poinsettias. A five-tiered bridal cake was served to the guests, following a hot buffet dinner. The Christmas season theme was again carried out in the hall decorations of white streamers, bells and red poinsettias. An orchestra provided music for dancing.

The young couple motored to Rockton, Ill., for a short honeymoon trip. They are now residing at 170th and Harlem ave., Tinley Park.

The bride is employed by L.J. Sheridan and Company, realtors. The groom works at Devlin's Service Station, Tinley Park.

GALA GIFT — For gala holiday occasions, nothing will prove so useful as a shoulder cape in brightly colored velveteen. Line it to match a dress, or keep it monotone to wear with everything. Vogue Printed Pattern 9804 contains four cape silhouettes — any one of which would be a perfect gift for the girl who loves basic clothes and stylish accessories.

Gloria Bettenhausen Weds Donald Coyner

At the church ceremony in the Tinley Park Methodist church at 4:30 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 21, the former Miss Gloria Bettenhausen became the bride of Mr. Donald C. Coyner in a double ring ceremony. The church pastor, Rev. Kenneth Crandall officiated at the candlelight service.

Bouquets of flowers decorated the altar and candleabra held lighted candles at every other pew.

The organist and soloist was Walter Wehr, who sang, "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer".

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert C. Bettenhausen, 6610 W. 175th st., Tinley Park; and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M.B. Coyner, of 16019 Latrobe ave., Oak Forest.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a gown of Chantilly lace over satin with scalloped neckline, bouffant skirt and long sleeves. The floor length gown trailed into a chapel train. A butterfly veil and crown completed the bridal costume. She carried a cascade of red roses, in which was inserted a going-away corsage.

Phyllis Ebeling, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore an azalea pink full-length strapless velvet and nylon sheer gown with a jacket and velvet headband to match.

The bridesmaids, Patricia Siemsen, Nancy Mazzoni, Patricia Cupp, Bonnie Brauer, and junior bridesmaid, Donna Bettenhausen, were all attired in gowns similar to the maid of honor's with matching headbands. All wore crystal necklaces, gifts of the bride, and carried white mum and pompon bouquets.

The flower girl, Denise Ebeling, niece of the bride, wore a white full-length dress and sequin crown. She carried a nosegay of pink roses. The ring bearer was Larry Lindemann.

Edward Siemsen was the groom's best man. Ushers were Harlan Bettenhausen, Paul Ebeling, Daniel Mazzoni, John Herrington, and Larry Doherty.

The bride's mother wore a dress of periwinkle blue and white accessories. Her crystal earrings were a gift of the groom. Her corsage was a white orchid.

The groom's mother was dressed in white with red accessories. She also wore a white orchid corsage.

Honored guests were the grandparents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Cappel and Mrs. Amelia Bettenhausen, and the groom's grandmother, Mrs. Viola Coyner.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Sir:
In reading your paper of December 3, I noticed that our mayor — long may he wave — had issued a "Proclamation" (watch your spelling there) designating December as traffic safety month in Tinley Park.

I think that is a fine thing. I hope that this month and all the rest of them in the coming year will see Tinley Park without a traffic accident that injures or kills anyone.
But there is one thing that bothers me. How am I to get home? I happened to be on the east side of Oak Park avenue when I read your paper. The last paragraph in the mayor's message says pedestrians "should only cross at intersections and should step off the curb only after the traffic light has turned to green."

Being a law abiding citizen I want to obey the mayor but I am afraid that if I wait for a traffic light to turn green in Tinley Park my hair will have turned to silver, for the simple reason there aren't any traffic lights.

Being on the east side of the street I am able to reach the post office. Between letters and telephone I have been able to keep in touch with friends and family to the west of Oak Park avenue but it is a wearing existence.

Mr. wife comes to the west curb, carrying my breakfast and dinner in a basket and while she can throw pretty fair for a woman some of the dishes lose something when she pitches them across the street. Green peas come over pretty good because she can push them into the mashed potatoes but cream pies are practically a total loss.

Please, Mr. Mayor, either take back your proclamation or build some traffic lights. I would like to get home in time to spend Christmas with my family. I am a sincere, and Patient Pedestrian.

ham Vice Pres., John Watkiss Secretary, and Dick Weems, business manager.

The club is working on several projects, among them is a field trip and reorganization of their Book Club, which did a fine job of supplying the History students with some very interesting and educational books last year. Kevin McGovern is their sponsor.

FRESHMEN CHORUS

The Freshman 4B Chorus has been practicing and staging programs each week for a period of weeks. The program is called the "12:05" club and consists of music of one field or another with choral music and dancing. These freshmen are improving rapidly under the direction of Tom Olson and his two able assistants Margie Ardaugh and Cindy Morrison.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

The F.H.A. will present their annual Christmas tea on Dec. 13, in the Lincoln-Way cafeteria.

The F.H.A. has been very busy in the last two weeks, on Dec. 4 they held a fashion show at an all girl assembly to try and help the girls decide which style of dress will be appropriate for the Christmas dance.

CHRISTMAS DANCE

This year the annual Christmas Dance at Lincoln-Way High School, is presented by the Sophomore class and entitled "Fantasy 'N' Frost."

The "Fantasy 'N' Frost" begins at 8:30 and ends at 11:30 p.m., Saturday, December 19, in the gym. The music will be played by Bill Papesh band.

Lunch At Home Best For All, Says Puffer

(CNS) Suburban children should not be allowed to eat their lunches 3/4th to a full mile from school, County Supt. of Schools Noble J. Puffer indicated in an article in his monthly bulletin recently issued.

"In good weather the distance might be different than that to be considered on stormy days," he said. "Not to put some limitation means that schools can have quite a problem if they allow just any child to stay. It seems there is a growing disposition by parents, particularly the mothers, to avoid responsibility of preparing a warm lunch by sending the children off with a cold lunch. This hardly seems fair to the children for authorities generally agree they should have a warm lunch if at all possible. "Of course, when a mother cannot be home, the child accompanied by the proper excuse from the mother, should be permitted to stay. I am informed that children living two, three and four blocks from the school are staying for lunch. This is ridiculous. The children could benefit from the walk and exercise."

"Since the legislature has by law decreed that teachers must have as long a lunch period as the pupils, administrators are faced with a really expensive and complicated problem of how to supervise children staying for lunch. "One district conceived the idea of charging a dollar per month as a sort of service charge. I think this is illegal for it seems to me the board must provide proper space and supervision without charge for children who stay for lunch.

"Suburban superintendents don't have many dull moments."

HOMEMAKING III

Homemaking III is a practical application of what we are trying to do in other areas of our specialized society. A few weeks are spent in a section called, "family living." Then in the spring the department runs a nursery school for a couple of days. This gives the girls experience in working with children.

The Annual Style Show in May is the feature of the work that the girls have produced in the sewing portion of their training. Students from Homemaking I will make a skirt and blouse, while in Homemaking II will show anything they please.

This style show takes place in an all school assembly in the month of May.

The Future Homemakers of America is an extra class item, but remains vital to the department, according to Mrs. Wright.

The FHA engages in many worthwhile activities through the course of a year. They have a theme of "service." Thus far, they have made favors for an old folks home and mending for an orphanage in Joliet. At present they are preparing Christmas baskets for the needy. Further plans include making of cancer bandages.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Borg of Marley are the local chapter parents. Marilyn Barnett of Lincoln-Way was elected projects chairman for the section of the state organization of FHA.

Mrs. Marcy Van Cleave is co-sponsor of the FHA, along with homemaking department head, Mrs. Wright.

GENEROUS TRADE IN ALLOWANCE

Would Ease Tax Load On Firms Hit By Strikes

Early in the first session of the 86th Congress, Rep. Noah M. Mason (R-Ill.) introduced a seemingly inconsequential bill (H.R. 6014) that now seems likely to be one of the top sensations in the second session. Because of the steel strike, what was unimportant is now vastly important to many businesses.

Congressman Mason's bill would provide relief for taxpaying companies become depleted or involuntarily liquidated because of material shortages during strikes. Sitting now as acting minority leader of the taxpaying House Ways and Means Committee, Mr. Mason was asked why he had introduced such a bill when no strike threatening manufacturers' inventories appeared to be anywhere in sight. His answer was typically Mason. "My name is Noah," he said. "The first Noah foresaw the flood. The gift of prophesy runs in the family of Noahs."

Panel hearings looking toward an eventual complete revision of the Internal Revenue Code have been underway since mid-November and will continue until a few days before Christmas. The panelists are top-flight tax experts -- lawyers, professors of economics, accountants, egghead students, and an occasional practical businessman. Their basic testimony has already been published in three thick volumes, comprising 2382 pages. Appearing in person before the surprisingly well-attended meetings of Ways and Means, the panelists summarize their lengthy papers in about five minutes each, after which they are at the mercy of the Congressmen's questions. Representative Mason, a long-time member of the Committee and a sharp student of tax policies and results, paid a compliment to one day's panelists when he said: "You are giving me a post-graduate course in taxation. I ought to pay for it, instead of being paid to hear what you say. You have stated that our tax system is not fair, but that it ought to be made fairer; that it is too complicated and should be made simpler. I agree with you."

On another day, when a couple of businessmen stated views about individual income taxes that were quite at variance with those of a group of economics teachers, Mr. Mason interrupted, with a smile: "You are in improper place among all these professors."

He added: "When I give $1000 to help build a church I have in mind that I shall give $600 and Uncle Sam will give $400."

The big committee room was crowded with visitors and most of the chairs on the Committee dais were filled when depletion allowances were up for discussion. Papers for and against continuation of these tax deductions -- mostly for -- were presented. Congressman Mason, with cement plants in his Illinois district which benefit by depletion allowance, remarked: "This Committee has considered this problem before. The costs of depletion versus the benefits have been discussed. The panelists seem to think that the benefits outweigh the costs. And I agree."

In a discussion of expense account abuses -- one of the prime worries of the Internal Revenue Service -- Mr. Mason commented that most of the panelists had agreed that lower tax rates would cure most of the problems of the tax laws. Getting up out of his seat, the Illinois Congressman paced slowly back and forth behind his colleagues. "I wonder," he asked at length, "if lower rates would also cure business expense abuses?" No one answered.

But he never misses an opportunity to put in a plug for his favorite conservative, penny-saving thought. Chairman Wilbur Mills complimented Charles R. Orem, Jr., of Sylvania Electric Products, on his argument that reduction of tax rates would be the best stimulus to a tax climate that would promote economic growth. Congressman Mason interjected: "Mr. Orem, you are a man after my own heart."

Mr. Orem, continuing his argument, said that only 14 per cent of revenue from individual income taxes is collected in the higher brackets.

"That's it," said Mr. Mason. "Politics! Soak the rich."

Business & Finance

MAURICE P. ANGLAND

The Investment Bankers Association has just concluded its 1959 meeting with reports on what they believe to be likely for business in 1960.

All remarks are prefaced with idea that there will be no continuation of the steel strike at conclusion the 80 day cooking off period under court injunction control. This period ends on Jan 27.

The majority of Investment Bankers is of the opinion there will be no continuation of the steel strike. The secret ballot of workers on the last company offer, is to start Jan. 7. It is pointed out that if the workers indicate willingness to accept company offer, the union will have strong pressure to settle; if worker sentiment indicates desire to continue strike, the steel firms will find it most difficult to avoid prompt settlement. If strike should begin again, it is most likely the Administration and congress will act quickly.

Once the steel strike is out of the way, these investment men believe the country will have at least six months of excellent business and probably at a faster pace than has been previously experienced. More than twice as many of these men prefer common stocks to bonds as an investment choice. According to U.S. News & World Report, also some use inflation as their reason for choosing common stock over bonds, the main reason is their faith in future growth of the U.S. economy in population and corporate earnings.

The magazine quoted one of these bankers as typical -- "A big rise in population, together with rapid progress in new products from research, is being counted on to bring growth in business and a rise in profits for hundreds of companies. It is for this reason that people are ready to buy stocks at prices that may seem pretty high."

The magazine took a poll of the banker's industry choices for their own investments. In order of preference they are as follows:

Electronics and electric, oil and natural gas, chemicals, utilities, steel, insurance, banks, automobiles, drugs, retail and wholesale trade, aluminum and nonferrous metals, food and beverage manufacturers, paper, recreation and entertainment, business machines, railroads, loan companies, airlines, aircraft and missiles, and textiles.

It is expected that plant improvement and expansion programs is going to bring about a large amount of new financing. They do not expect credit to become much tighter, but also expect little or no relaxing of the present

Marley Lad Celebrates 5th Birthday

Scott Killinger celebrated his fifth birthday with a party in his home Friday afternoon, Dec. 11. Refreshments were served from a pretty table centered with a train birthday cake. Games were played and prizes were given to the winners. Guests were Verda Jo Sass, Debbie Sass, Robin Walsh, Janet Crabb, Laurie Vaughn, Etha Griffin, Mark Nutter, Gene Binion, Dennis Jeffries, Michael Jeffries, and Terry McCarthy.

tight controls which have already cut down on residential building.

Farm income in 1960 is not expected to show an improvement over 1959.

Investment men believe that business in 1960 will be good, but that stock investments should be made on a selective basis rather than a purely industry basis.

The Bureau of National Affairs reports on wage contracts and labor increases expected for 1960, plainly portends another upward push in the wage costs. Many of industry's present labor contracts call for mandatory increases in 1960. In addition, there is the expected demand of the railroad brotherhoods for wage and benefit increases. The usual pattern in such railroad labor disputes, in a mediation board and fact finding group which usually secures for these unions about what they demand after some shadow boxing.

Steel prices will likely be increased on those heavy shapes, and specialty steel which are in the smallest competition from foreign mills.

It is very difficult to believe that the wage-price spiral has been stopped.

Have A Merry Christmas But A Safe One

This is the time of year when one should be doubly vigilant against fire.

So many of the Christmas decorations are highly combustible -- especially Christmas trees -- and a moment of carelessness can mean great tragedy.

This is not to be interpreted as a knock on the decorative touches that add so much to the Yuletide. Far from it. We like Christmas decorations. We like Christmas trees and are especially partial to the kind festooned with all kinds of tinsel, ornaments and various colored lights.

The flocked trees, adorned with ornaments all of the same shape and color and illuminated by flood lights are pretty enough but we still like the old fashioned type of Christmas tree.

One should keep in mind, however, that a Christmas tree can be dangerous. If it become ignited it is virtually impossible to extinguish the flames.

Statistics furnished by the National Safety Council show December and January are the leading months for fire burns. Last year 93 fire deaths occurred in the Christmas holiday alone.

Fire is not the only danger in preparing homes and shops for Christmas. A lot of people are injured by falls each year. Use steps or a ladder in reaching high points but don't let the youngsters use them.

We are not trying to discourage decorating for the holidays. We are all for it but you can do it and at the same time use care and common sense.

Since Christmas greens are full of pitch and resin and are easily ignited common sense should warn one against smoking while trimming or dismantling a tree.

Using lighted candles on a tree or any combustible decorations is also just asking for trouble, with a capital F, because F means fire, and fire can mean a lot of trouble.

Never leave the tree lights on while the house is empty of people; or go to bed and leave the tree lights burning.

Operating electrical toys, such as trains, beneath the tree. Arcs can ignite decorations or wrappings.

Wait until just before Christmas to put up the tree and meanwhile keep it in a cold place. Saw it off diagonally and put the tree in a stand filled with water.

Keep trees away from radiators, heat registers, TV sets and powerful electric lights which speed the drying up process of the needles and thus make them more combustible.

Use decorations, if possible, that have been treated to make them fire resistant. Keep metallic icicles or tinsel away from light sockets -- they can cause short circuits or flash fires. And while on the subject, do not overload circuits or replace normal fuses with oversized ones -- or sue a penny in place of a fuse.

Be sure the strings of lights you use carry the Underwriters Laboratories label and discard them when cords become frayed and sockets become faulty. Turn the lights on and off away from the tree -- not under it.

And when it comes time to dismantle the tree do not break off the branches and burn them in a fire-place or furnace, because the roaring fire that results is too difficult to control.

The best place to burn used Christmas trees and greens is outdoors in a fire-safe spot. Some communities in the area have organizations that pick up trees after New Year's day, cart them out to an open place and burn them under the supervision of their fire departments.

Now go ahead with your decorating but please be careful. Christmas should be a joyous season, not a tragic one.

On Second Tho't

This writer was somewhat startled the other day to see a sign.. "Give HER Something Practical for Christmas and She Will Always Remember It."

-0-

Truer word was never written. SHE not only will always remember it but will see to it that everyone else does too.

-0-

But the startling thing was that the sign was posted in several locations in a store dealing in many items and gewgaws that were far from practical.

I can see how the owners of certain types of business might have to stress the practical side if they hoped to unload any merchandise during the Christmas season, but not when they have other things to sell.

Take a feed store for instance. Prevailing upon a husband to send his wife half a ton of chicken feed for Christmas might be a practical thing if she is raising chickens but the odds are pretty high against her leaping up and down with joy when the stuff is carted in.

You can also imagine the oohs! and ahs! that would arise with the unveiling of such a practical choice as a galvanized wash tub, complete with washboard--or maybe a hand wringer.

Or to borrow from an old slogan, -- promise her anything but give her a snow shovel.

-0-

If you don't want to spend that much a can of oven cleaning fluid probably would make a hit. Maybe two hits-- one when the can hits you and the other when you hit the floor.

-0-

A big, big box of soap flakes or a jug of floor wax should also delight and add to your popularity.

-0-

Brushes and chamois to enable her to wash the family car should also please.

-0-

The practical side of Christmas giving has a lot to be said for it but don't push it too far.

-0-

Afterall it is better to spend Christmas at home than in a hospital. And even if that doesn't happen remember that as long as you live you'll hear about the time you had a practical Yuletide.

-0-

Be Christmasy -- that's the best bet.

Times Goes Back Into Antiquity

JOHN W. ALLEN
So. Ill. University

Five thousand years ago the Egyptians place ornaments on palm fronds and used them for decorations at the winter solstice. The Greeks, Romans and peoples of those days used evergreens for the same purpose. The Germans and Scandinavians also observed the winter solstice by using trees. These were the "Christmas trees" of the ancients.

In the 1500's Martin Luther decorated and lighted a small evergreen in his home and thereby made it a part of the world's Christmas legend.

The first decorated tree recorded for Illinois was one that the daughters of Gustave Koerner decorated at Belleville in 1833. They took "the top of a young sassafras which still had some leaves on it . . . dressed it with ribbon and bits of colored paper and the like" and "hung it with little red apples and nuts and all sorts of confections," made by "Aunt Caroline". "They put waxed candles on the branches," Koerner says, "Perhaps this is the first Christmas (tree) that was lighted on the banks of the Mississippi."

Much later, about 1900, trees became country wide in use. Today, eight out of ten homes in America have them.

Trees and trimmings can be brought now at countless places. When the custom began, both were "home-made". This brief story of the first one in a rural district school will tell something of Christmases past.

A farmer gave a small cedar tree and the teacher sent larger boys to cut and bring it to the school a day or two prior to its use. To the boys, going a half mile for the tree, then carrying and dragging it back, was not a task but a privilege.

Decorating the tree was a grand occasion. White cloth and cotton batting were arranged under the tree to represent snow. A pupil-made cardboard fireplace, its mantle hung with knitted wool socks, was placed near the tree.

The tree was lighted by candles tied to its branches with string or attached with clothes pins. Brilliantly colored crepe paper was cut into strips for drapes. Many yards of strung popcorn crisscrossed the tree. A bag of red cranberries made a long, long string that hung from the branches. Red haws made other strings, and clusters of the small red fruit of the buckberry with rusty red rose hips were tied in place. Spiny fruits of the sweet gum tree were covered with tin foil saved from plug chewing tobacco. Surplus foil was cut into narrow strips to drape on branches or into small bits to make artificial ice. Glistening baubles hung from the branches and a shiny foil covered star was fastened at the very top of the tree. Bits of cotton looked like patches of snow.

Gifts were plainly wrapped and names were written on them. They were tied on the tree, not stacked beneath.

A special program was arranged. It consisted of readings, recitations, songs and a short dialogue. Among the numbers offered were: Silent Night, Oh, Little Town of Bethlehem, Jolly Saint Nicholas, While Shepherds Watched Their Flocks at Night, 'Twas the Night Before Christmas, It Came Upon a Midnight Clear and that ever popular poem where each stanza ended with " 'Ceptin' jes' 'fore Christmas I'm as good as I can be'".

Parents came to enjoy the program. Santa Claus with jingling bells and a cotton beard came dressed in an oversized, pillow stuffed, red, cotton trimmed suit to

The Woman's club held their annual Christmas dinner party on Dec. 7 at the Charm Acre's tea room in Lockport. Holiday centerpieces and appointments decorated the tables. Dinner was served at noon. A Christmas program was presented by Mrs. John Riley. Carols were sung by the group, accompanied by Mrs. Charles Elliott at the piano. The president, Mrs. William Ducleck, conducted a short business session. Mrs. Adella Sproat, Christmas charity chairman, reported on the gifts from the club for the patients at the Will County Sanitarium. It was announced that the January meeting will be held in the Homer church with members of the New Lenox Woman's club as guests. The hostesses will be Mrs. Otto Moravec and Mrs. Henry Volz. at HARVEY FEDERAL SAVINGS

Starting January 1, 1960

Just think how fast your savings account will grow—when Harvey Federal Savings adds the new anticipated 4% annual dividend rate. If you put in $1,000 and didn't add another penny you would have $1,480.20 in ten years!

Top earnings? Always. But there's another reason why more people save at HFS than at any other savings institution in the South Suburban area. And that reason is safety. In our 49 years, no saver has ever lost a single penny. And during all the ups and downs of that half century, HFS has never missed an annual dividend.

So, where you save does make a difference. Why not join the "jump" to Harvey Federal Savings now? You may save by mail, use convenient public transportation, park in our free parking lot, or stay right in your car and use our new Drive-Up Window. It's quick-as-a-bunny!

Orland Park Collect $502 In Boy Scout Fund Drive

BY LILLIAN KNOX
Fieldbrook 9-0211

On behalf of the Boy Scouts of America and particularly troop #251, Orland Park, Roy Benson, Joseph Kaiser and Ralph Town express their appreciation to all who contributed to the recent drive for funds. Approximately $502.00 was obtained.

Joseph Bartell, chairman of the paper drive committee, announces that the next paperpick-up will take place Saturday, Jan. 2, 1960. Please have your newspapers and waste paper bundled and placed at the curb for easier handling.

At the regular meeting of the Auxiliary to the Orland Park firemen, a Christmas party and gift exchange will follow the business. Mrs. Peter O'Connor will entertain the group Monday evening, Dec. 21, at 8 p.m.

The Martha Circle of the Methodist WSCS will hold a bake sale, Saturday Dec. 19, from 2 to 5 p.m. in Loebe Brothers store.

The Father Circle of the WSCS will meet at the home of Mrs. Harold Shroats, Wednesday, Dec. 30, for their Christmas party and gift exchange. A pot-luck lunch to be served at 12:30 p.m.

The Ladies Aid of Christ Lutheran church held their regular meeting Thursday evening, Dec. 10, in the church school building. A Christmas party and a gift exchange followed the business session.

Piano students of Mrs. Eugene Paschall met at her home Nov. 30, at 3:45 p.m. for Music club.

Piano solos were played by the following: Karen Doubek, Billy McKinley, Priscilla Loebe, Ann Paschall, Carol Prohaska, Nancy Loebe, Scott Bischoff and Donna Szufnarowski. A duet was played by Donna Szufnarowski and Mrs. Paschall. Music appreciation included a discussion of the story of the "Sorcerer's Apprentice" by Paul Dukas. It was played and story told by Scott Bischoff. The program concluded with group singing of Christmas Carols played by Karen Doubek, Donna Szufnarowski, Ann Paschall, Priscilla and Nancy Loebe.

Guests were Mrs. Olive Loebe, Mrs. Franklin Loebe, Mrs. Neva Lincoln, Mrs. Frank Bischoff, Mrs. Charles McKinley, Mrs. Emil Doubek, Mrs. Edward Prohaska and Keith, Joyce and Steven Paschall. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

While Mrs. Emma Burkhardt, who resides in Oak Park, was baby sitting, she stumbled over a chair and broke her hip. She is a patient in West Suburban Hospital, Oak Park. Mrs. Burkhardt was a resident of Orland Park for many years and would be happy to hear from her Orland friends.

Mrs. John VanBerschoot is home from the hospital and coming along nicely.

The Church of the Nazarene will have their children's Christmas program on Wednesday evening, Dec. 23, at 7:30. Everyone is welcome.

Santa Claus will visit Orland Shopping Center, Tuesday evening, Dec. 22 at 7 p.m. He will arrive by fire truck with gifts for all the boys and girls. The Orland State Bank and the Fire Department are sponsoring the event.

On Saturday, Dec. 19, the fire department and the Home Owners Association of Orland Park Hills will show a movie and give candy to all the children. This event will be held in the Orland Grade school Gym at 2 p.m.

The fire department thanks all the people for the wonderful help in making their Fall dance a BIG success.

A free-will offering was taken at the dance by a fellow fireman, Albert DeNovi of Columbus Manor, who want to help in some way, the Orland firemen in their fund building. The total collected was $31 which will go toward the new fire house.

The annual Christmas Program of the Methodist Church school will be presented Sunday, Dec. 20, at 7:30 p.m. Due to the crowded conditions in the past, it has been decided to present the program in the Orland Park Elementary school gymnasium. Mrs. James Miller and Miss Doris Myrick are directing the program this year.

Mrs. George Estand had the misfortune of cracking two ribs and tore the skin on her little finger of the left hand which required several stitches, when she stumbled over the threshold of the rear entrance to her home, a week ago Saturday.

The firemen experienced some strange results when they arrived at a call. On Saturday afternoon, a woman saw paper burning in front of a home at 10265 Hyacinth drive and called the fire department, on arrival no fire was discovered. Saturday evening someone called, thinking a house was afire at 145th & 108th ave., but it appeared a reflection from the Lockport Refinery looked like the house was burning.

Early Sunday morning, the home on 14940 South 81st ave., was filled with smoke and when the firemen arrived discovered something in the oven was burning.

Hints For Homeowners

Giant Mums To Be Available For Gardens

BY JAMES FIZZELL

Assistant Cook Co. Farm Adviser

How many garden enthusiasts have wished they could grow "football mums" in their gardens? The large mums of the commercial trade bloom to late, and are killed by frost before the flower is produced. This coming spring, a true giant garden mum will be introduced to the public under the name of Harvest Giants.

These are truly large football mums, 4 - 7 inches in diameter with full, deep flowers. These are ten varieties listed for spring release:

Pull Moon - 5-6 inch, creamy white, blooms late September.

Gold Dust - 4-5 inch, gold yellow, blooms prolifically from early September until frost.

Indian Summer - red-bronze, over six inches in diameter.

Jack-O-Lantern - 4-5 inches, well-rounded, yellow flowers, strong stems.

Pink Haze - early, light pink, 5 inch flowers.

Pumpkin - warm apricot, and the most compact of all; flowers 5 inches across.

Red skin - Dark red, 5 inch flowers on sturdy stems.

September Song - orchid rose, will bloom very early if disbudded.

Touchdown - the giant of all. Up to 7 1/2 inches in diameter, rose-colored, but latest of the ten. Should be in full bloom in early October in this area.

White Frost - Pure white, 5-6 inches in mid-September.

Unlike most garden mums, the Harvest Giants have the delightful habit of staying in bloom over a long period of time. Picking the open flowers helps the development of side buds. Most of the varieties will continue to bloom even with light frost until a hard freeze.

Harvest giants develop a bushy plant, 1 1/2 to 2 1/2 feet tall.

Some of the varieties may need to be staked if they are started early.

These varieties are early. They will all bloom before mid-October in a normal year. A very hot August will tend to delay bloom, as with all mums. Although these plants will stand frost, gardeners in early frost areas should use the earlier varieties.

Harvest Giants do their best in full sun. Insufficient light causes excessive elongation making the stems weak, and also can delay bloom.

The plants should be pinched to keep them compact, and disbudding will increase flower size.

Formally Open New Village Hall At Open House

The new village hall at 1567 and Cicero ave., was formally dedicated at an open house last Saturday afternoon. Many visitors were greeted by Mayor Casey Jones and other village officials during the afternoon. Many well-wishers sent flowers.

Refreshments were served to all by Mrs. Clarence Jones, wife of the village president; Mrs. Richard Van Horn, Mrs. William K. Kerns, assistant village clerk; and Mrs. George Schindler.

The additional facilities to handle official business, including a general meeting hall for the village board, and an office for the village clerk; also the fire and police departments, are necessary, said Mayor Jones, because of the rapid growth in population of the village.
